Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The instant application is deemed to be directed to a non-obvious improvement over the invention patented in Pat. No. 6,652,221. The improvements are a turbine rotor of hollow construction comprising means for enabling equalization of internal and external pressures arising on the blade during cyclic movement of the blade through a vertical distance when located in a moving column of water. The improvements further comprise a method for countering the effects of variation in static pressure acting on a hollow rotor blade immersed in flowing water with the method step of equalizing the pressure inside and outside the rotor blade. In another embodiment, the method comprising the step of allowing the external surface of the rotor blade to expand and contract under influence of external static pressure variation.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Prior Art

The prior art made of record but not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure and consists of 1 patent.

Lehoczky (6,104,097) is cited to show an underwater hydro-turbine.

Art Unit: 3745
